Outlook for New Postoifice Building Is Poor.

Is Still Delayed.

Chances for developments in the North Topexa postoffice situation apear to be slim at this time. In fact, to action will be taken until the next session of congress, is the opinion of persons who have followed the trend of events closely. At the next session, however, it is expected that Charles Curtis, United States senator from Kansas, who formerly resided in North tion scandal at Terre Haute Montgom-Topeka, will attempt to clarify the ery was president of the board of pub-
